

American Council on Consumer Interests

Honor a Mentor

The American Council on Consumer Interests honors members and other professionals who provide leadership to others by positively influencing their professional or personal life or facilitating the achievement of career or educational goals. In many cases, a group of students (or former students) will join together to honor a respected and beloved professor.

Honored mentors

- May be living, or honored posthumously
- May or may not be a member of ACCI
- May be honored by one or more protégés

At least one protégé, donor or the honoree must be a current member of the American Council on Consumer Interests.

Protégé's may honor a mentors at one of three levels:

- Mentor ($200)
- Master Mentor ($1,000)
- Maestro Mentor ($3,000)

Nominate a mentor and donate today at www.consumerinterests/mentor.html.

American Council on Consumer Interests

Awards Nomination Form

2011

Name of Nominator:

Email Address of Nominator:

Phone Number of Nominator:

Name of Nominee:

Email Address of Nominee:

Award (please check one):

Mid-Career Award

Robert O. Hermmann Ph.D. Dissertation Award

Please provide supporting comments for your nominee below (you may add pages if necessary):

Please submit this form to Margaret Fitzgerald no later than November 15, 2010 at Margaret.Fitzgerald@ndsu.edu.