Purpose

To encourage students to meet and network with fellow students and professionals in the field, and keep current on consumer research and related interests

Criteria

- Strength of Student's written description of why it is important for the applicant to attend
- Strength of the letter of reference from faculty member supporting student's application
- Higher priority may be given to students presenting papers at the Conference

Format

- Letter of application/request from the student, identifying their contact information, program of study, university and department, as well as the name of the advisor. Mention whether you submitted a proposal for review for either an oral or poster session at the upcoming conference.
- Reference letter from advisor or other faculty member

Award

Waiver or reimbursement of registration fee. If funds are available, partial travel support may be provided after the conference.

Follow up and receipt of award:

After the conference and before waivers or reimbursements are provided, a short-written paper (no more than one page) is required describing how attending the conference contributed to a "value-added" experience for them professionally.
