Assistant Professor of Personal Financial Planning
Kansas State University

About This Position:
The School of Family Studies and Human Services at Kansas State University is seeking an Assistant Professor in Personal Financial Planning

This position is a
- 9-month, 100% time appointment
- Tenure track or non-tenure track appointment, depending on your qualifications and/or availability to relocate

You will be expected to:
- teach on-line and/or on campus courses as required for the B.S., M.S., Ph.D., and graduate certificate programs
- chair and serve on M.S. and doctoral committees
- conduct and publish research in refereed scholarly journals related to family and consumer financial behavior and financial planning and/or financial therapy topics
- advise and mentor graduate and/or undergraduate students
- be available for August intensive doctoral on-campus courses
- pursue external grant funding
- provide service to the unit, school, college, and university

Position Start Date:
No later than August 2019 but as early as January 2019, depending on your availability

Why Join Us:
The Personal Financial Planning program in the School of Family Studies and Human Services at Kansas State University is a top program nationally.

We offer the following degree programs and certificates:
- Three degree programs (B.S., M.S., Ph.D.) in Personal Financial Planning
  - All programs are registered with the Certified Financial Planner (CFP) Board of Standards, Inc.
  - The B.S. is offered on campus and online
  - The M.S. is offered online
  - The Ph.D. program is a hybrid program; students take courses online during the fall and spring semesters, and participate in 10-day intensive courses on campus in August and an international experience in their final summer.

- Two graduate certificate programs
  - Personal Financial Planning
  - Financial Therapy

Our undergraduate program is growing and our undergraduate student teams are consistently placing in the top 3 programs at national competitions.

Our doctoral students are excelling in the field and taking a variety of academic and industry positions, including placements at peer-institution programs and business schools.
What you’ll need to succeed:

Minimum Requirements
- Earned doctorate (by start date) in
  - Personal Financial Planning
  - Family Economics
  - Consumer Economics
  - Family Resource Management
  - Couple and Family Therapy
  - Or related fields
- Demonstrated content expertise to teach core classes in the Personal Financial Planning program
- Excellent research, data analysis, and grant writing skills
- Ability to work effectively with undergraduate and graduate students in a multidisciplinary environment

Preferred Qualifications
Preference will be given to candidates who have:
- expertise and ability to teach financial therapy content
- graduate/research mentoring experience
- relevant professional designations or licenses
- excellent on-line teaching experience
- an active research interest/agenda in financial behavior
- experience teaching graduate level courses
- active membership in relevant professional organizations, such as:
  - Association of Financial Counseling and Planning Education (AFCPE)
  - Financial Planning Association (FPA)
  - American Council on Consumer Interests (ACCI)
  - Financial Therapy Association (FTA)
  - and similar organizations

How to Apply:
Please submit the following documents:
1. Cover Letter
2. Curriculum Vitae (CV)
3. Contact information for three professional references

Inquiries may be addressed to the search committee chair:
- Dr. Stuart Heckman (sheckman@ksu.edu)

Apply By:
Screening begins October 15, 2018 and will continue until the position is filled

Salary and Benefits:
A competitive salary, commensurate with qualifications and experience, will be provided.

This is an unclassified position of Kansas State University and the benefit package includes:
- a retirement plan
- group health and life insurance plans
- worker's compensation
- sick leave
- and other benefits

Equal Opportunity and Background Screening:
Kansas State University is an Equal Opportunity Employer of individuals with disabilities and protected veterans and actively seeks diversity among its employees. Equal Employment Opportunity is the Law.

In connection with your application for employment, Kansas State University may procure a Background Screen on you as part of the process of considering your candidacy as an employee.