ISO Consumer Update - Due October 8

The next issue the ISO Consumer update will be published in October 2014. At this time, ISO is welcoming information about national developments of consumer interest, especially if there are wider implications for consumers. ISO is looking for brief information (not more than half of an A4 page)

The ISO Consumer update is publicly accessible through the homepage of ISO Online (www.iso.org see under Subscriptions).about developments of consumer interest from various countries, in the following general categories:

- 1) New standards for consumer protection in your country or region;
- 2) Interesting facts and tips about consumer participation issues;
- 3) Consumer protection legislation (especially if supported by voluntary standards);
- 4) New tools and resources for consumers such as training tools or websites;
- 5) International Standards you feel are particularly important or significant right now for your country/region, and what impact they have.

For More Information: Michaela Miller, Program Administrator, ISO Team, American National Standards Institute, 25 West 43rd Street, New York, NY 10036. mmiller@ansi.org.
